

Prayer for the Sick and Suffering

Heal me Lord, that I may be healed. (Jeremiah 17:14)

Heavenly Father, come to the assistance of the aged and infirm;
Send to them compassionate helpers.
You are the hope of the shut-ins;
Remind their friends and family to visit often.

Out of the depths of their souls the bedridden cry;
Hear their groaning and bring them comfort,
Send them joyful company.

Lord Jesus, show your kindness to those with impaired vision;
And grant them renewed eyesight.
Hear the prayers of those with hearing problems;
As you once said: "Ephphatha!" (that is, "Be opened."). (Mark 7:34)

Help those who cannot sleep and eat;
Grant them quiet peacefulness each night
and renew their appetite each morning.

Lord, bring relief to the mentally afflicted;
Touch their minds and hearts,
And insure they receive right medicines and counseling.

Holy Spirit, send special graces to the terminally ill and the dying;
Let them see your face,
and bring to them the spiritual peace this world lacks.

God Almighty, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, Creator of heaven and earth, remind us, and all those who pray for or take care of the sick that your healing touch awaits the right time.

And remind us Lord....
*that you are with us in tribulation (Ps 91:15),
that while we sow in tears, we will reap in rejoicing (Ps. 126:5), that we can find joy in the suffering we endure for each other (Col 1:24),*
